

Andy Willmott, Epsom BID

Andy is the BID manager in Epsom an 'urban, market village' in north of Surrey.

Andy started his career in publishing (in a time before people read things on a screen) and has worked on publications and exhibitions in both the UK and the Middle East.

Having spent the previous 10 years working for Surrey Chambers of Commerce, Andy is a passionate supporter of Surrey businesses and is proud to working in a town that boasts not one but two internationally known brands – The Derby and Epsom Salts.

Andy is also known to many people in Surrey towns (including Epsom) as the organiser of regular Farmers' & Artisans Markets.
