Lucy Stanford, Director of Operations, Nottingham BID

Lucy Stanford is Director of Operations at Nottingham BID. During her time at Nottingham BID Lucy has launched successful new projects such as the Nottingham Ale Trails. More recently she led on the cities reopening strategy during covid, as well as achieving a successful ballot result in October 2020, with 92% in favour by number and 89% by RV. Lucy believes cooperation is key to successful place management and is passionate about working with partners and stakeholders to maximise the potential of Nottingham.
