

Abdel Najid

I am an experienced professional with a career spanning over 27 years. Before joining South Bank BID, I worked as a Commercial Operations Manager for South Bank Centre managed and more recently I was General Manager of a principal partner practice of St. James Place Wealth Management. Outside of my professional life, I enjoy spending time with friends and family, travelling and agonising over how my football team is doing week in week out!