Chris Travers, Orpington 1st

Chris Travers is the BID Manager for Orpington, a major town centre in the London Borough of Bromley. Along with responsibility for day to day operations, Chris plays a critical role in building relationships with key stakeholders ahead of the planned redevelopment and transformation of Orpington town centre.

Following an introduction to the BID industry in a management role for an events company, Chris became Assistant BID Manager at Bexleyheath BID in 2013 before joining Orpington 1st the following year. He completed the Certificate in BID Management in 2016 and successfully steered Orpington through its renewal ballot in 2017.
