

Certificate in BID Management

Emily Stedman, South Bank BID

Currently, I am Communications and Engagement Manager at South Bank Employers' Group, the delivery agent for South Bank BID. I work with the wide variety of levy payers we have in the area, including helping to support the venues and destination marketing initiatives we run alongside. I'm an English Literature graduate with a variety of work experience in film and arts based not-for-profits - most recently I spent a year and a half working in B2B international marketing in Tokyo, Japan.
