

Certificate in BID Management

Fran Inman, Bristol City Centre BID

A background in events from venue management to international. More recently working in Project Management in both local authority and private organisations improving the places we live. I joined Bristol City Centre BID back in 2019 as a Project Manager and primarily now focus on the safety projects.

